

It is important that all independent isp's be guaranteed access to broadband telephone service. Please continue FCC regulation of this service to preserve the voice of independent providers.